“ I have been very sad since hearing about Honeyboy. Through many memories throughout the years, I have cried and I always missed him. Such a wonderful person and I cannot ever remember not knowing him. Honeyboy and my oldest brother, Duke Stepp, grew us as best friends. I am extremely sorry to all his family and friends and knowing how much he was loved and how he will always be missed. From a child, he was like another big brother to me. With such patience and love, Duke and Honeyboy taught me to dance and were not embarrassed to dance with me at the restaurant in Warfield, during lunchtime. Two of the best big brothers, knew how to make a clumsy and shy little sister, feel special. My heart feels broken and I pray that God will bless you all with comfort!
