“ My earliest memories of Calf Creek were sitting on Uncle Oak Horn's lap and him yelling. me I must be his little girl because I had dark hair like Angie's. Later I found out my Daddy paid Uncle Oak to name his daughter after the woman who would become his wife and my mother, Angie Marie Kowalinski. I have so many memories of my sweet cousin Angie, her beloved Mother Aunt Julie, her sister Patty and brothers Rickey. and Mikey. I hope to see her one day when we all gather together in Heaven for a huge family reunion.
