“ I have so many great memories of Aunt Betty I wouldn't know what ones to write. So I'm just going to say she has found peace with her mind and body. She is no longer struggling to breath, walk or feeling a broken heart. I'll miss her dearly but one thing is certain, I'll reunite with her one day, along mom&dad.

“ Betty and I were around sixteen years old at this time, we both had a date with two pack boys. We got all cleaned up and sit on my porch for a long time just talking and having a good time. We were so mad at those two Pack boys (Larry and Gary), we got stood up! To my knowledge neither one of us gave those Pack boys the time of day after that.

I played, with Betty Jo, climbed hills and rocks, and build fires in the hills to bake potatoes and we hid Easter eggs in the hills. The hills were our favorite thing to do, with her brothers James and John. I ate supper a many of times with Betty Jo, at her mom and dad's house. I will never forget her family lived above a country school at this time, and one day I met with Mary McCoy to have a fight, over Homer Horn. I did not know how to fight, but I had to acted like I knew it all! Betty Jo and her sister Lucille came to my risqué.

My family lived behind a store on Buck Creek, Sue Maynard, another good friend of mind and Betty Jo came to fight me. Betty Jo hid behind a school stand, behind the Church of God building. Sue hollered for me, my dad had spotted Betty behind the school stand and warned me. We didn't have a fight that day. lol

One night I got invited to a birthday party, I am not sure whose birthday it was at Betty's house. Yes! the Pack boys were there and I did get a kiss from Larry and I am pretty sure that Betty Jo got a kiss from Gary. This was before we got stood up, but we got our kiss. I don't think either brother had a car to come and see us.

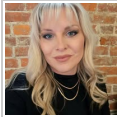

The last time I got to see Betty Jo was about 10 years ago, we both stopped at Happy Mart on 23 in Louisa, Ky and we had a long talk. After that time, she called me once from WV. and I tried to call her once, but her phoned had changed, we had no contact after that time.

These memories of Betty Jo, has made me both cry and laugh at the same time. I sure hope they help make her family's day a little brighter, it has mine. We all have to die, some sooner than others, but I am glad that Betty Jo was part of my life. I loved her very much.
