“ I hadn't seen Bobby in many years, but used to visit the family when he was a child and after they moved to WV. I remember him as a happy little boy who always had a smile. I'm so sorry for your loss and my deepest sympathy to his children and family. May God bless you all in the coming days and give you peace.

“ Dear cousin,

I know we weren't so close in our adult years but I still have vivid memories of family visits to WV or your folks coming to see us or at family gatherings.

In those memories you were rarely without a smile. Bright-eyed and boisterous, energized and eager. It was infectious. A beacon.

I can hope that continues to shine through your children.
