

Brookie Alley

September 3, 1934 - September 22, 2024

Brookie Alley 90, of Hode, Kentucky passed away on Sunday, September 22, 2024 surrounded by her family at the Community Hospice in Ashland, KY. She was born in Martin County on September 3, 1934 to the late Joe Fletcher and Sara Ann Simpkins. In addition to her parents she is preceded in death by her husband, George Alley, two siblings, James Harrison Fletcher and Elmer Fletcher and Sula Fletcher, who raised her.

Brookie was a devoted wife to Pastor George Alley and a true ray of sunshine on even the gloomiest days. She had a warm and welcoming heart, always ready to be a mother figure to anyone in need. Her home was a safe haven for all—humans and cats alike.

Brookie had a passion for raising rabbits and chickens. She could talk endlessly on how to breed a specific rabbit. On sunny days, you could often find her in the garden, happily picking green beans or feeding her beloved chickens. She was known for her incredible generosity, never allowing anyone to leave her home hungry. Her strawberry pie was a family favorite, and her hugs were cherished by all who knew her.

Brookie's kind and loving spirit will be missed by many, including her dear cats, rabbits, and chickens.

Brookie is survived by her two children, Ronnie Joe Alley and wife Melissa of Ashland, KY and Greg Alley and wife Malysa of Hode, KY; four grandchildren, Rhonda Alley, Sarah Alley, Alex Alley and Tayla Alley and three great grandchildren, Kiera Collett, Cole Collett and Emma Mae Collett. She also leaves behind one sister in law, Lorne Fletcher.

Funeral services will be held at 12:00pm, Wednesday, September 25, 2024 at the Warfield Chapel of the Callaham Funeral Home in Warfield, KY with Lloyd Alley officiating. Burial will follow at the Alley Cemetery in Hode. Friends may visit at the chapel on Tuesday from 6:00-9:00pm. Arrangements are under the direction of the Callaham Funeral Home, Inez, KY.

“ We are all heartbroken at the loss of our cousin, Brookie. The Chaffin family have always been so close and Brookie was treasured as a member. I cannot remember if reunion when she wasn't there to share the beauty of her voice until recently. I will never forget the first time I heard Brookie and George on the TV. I had gone upstairs to change clothes after work and I heard her voice...I started screaming"that's Brookie and George"! Ed said, We don't know anyone singing on TV." I almost fell trying to run down stairs...and it was them. Loved telling her that story. Our deepest condolences to the family. She will always be in our hearts. Wonderful memories.

“ I connected up with Brookie over 3 years ago. We talked about the how wonderful children are and she was blessed to have grandchildren. Brookie would sing this son Thank you Lord for the Blessings you gave me. Brookie to me was the most precious cousin I had . I was the that was so blessed to have Brookie in my life. Then I got to me Rhonda Watson and her husband. Just the sweetest couple. If you ask to pray for you she would just stop and pray. I head about Alex and how smart he is and he could fix anything. I'm very sorry that I wasn't able to get to come because I was looking forward to meeting this wonderful family of Brookie's and George Alley. Hopefully someday I might be blessed to meet you all. I promised Brookie that I would testify for her for the rest of my life while I am on this world. Love you and God Bless you all.

“ Our love and sympathy and prayers to all of Brookie's family.. She and her late husband, George Alley, were well known and loved by many. They sang together for many years at many churches. They were truly busy working for our God. Whether they were about God's work, or shopping at the store, they were always together. She would be shopping inside, seeing friends she knew, and he would be in the car, waiting patiently for her, while friends or family would stop and chat with him. Brookie and her late husband George, will be greatly missed by many. They are resting from their labors and their works do follow them. Troy and Ursula Dingess.
