“ Soooo sorry for your loss of a very special lady. She and your Dad would do anything they could for anyone. Your family has been very special to mine. I remember when we lived in Ohio and there was a disaster in West Virginia. They headed for West Virginia and Lowell and I kept you and David, at their home, for a week or more. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. We are all on a journey and I know I will see her again in heaven. Looking forward to that day.

“ Sympathy and prayers to all of Carolyn's family and friends. I met her a few years ago. We had a mutual friend, Vernice Claypool. We both were visiting her one time and that is how we met. We both loved Mrs. Claypool and I learned what a nice person Carolyn was. Mrs. Claypool passed away and I had not seen Carolyn lately. Was saddened to see her Obit. I am thankful our paths crossed in this life, and believe they will again in our eternal home. Ursula (Susie) Dingess

“ I remember so many times seeing Carolyn and your dad when they visited in Owensboro for one of the girls' parties or just because. One time in particular stands out though. You and Kevin were our on-call sitters for my upcoming delivery due date for Logan. As it turned out, he came on your move-in day at the Veach Rd house. Carolyn and Clint took care of four little girls that day while you guys moved and I was in labor, until Mom & Dad arrived from Memphis. They were no doubt worn out, but it was nice to know my girls were having a fun day and being well taken care of. Your mom was very special. She was always so sweet and loving. I know you will always miss her and I'm so sorry for your great loss.

Three little girls; Madison wasn't here yet at that time. Three was a handful considering she only expected to be caring for little miss Lauren Nicole that day. 😊

“ I've never known anyone any more humble or giving than Carolyn. Anything we needed at church she was ready to get, make or provide. She never had an ill or harsh word for or about anyone. I'm going to miss her dearly we became closer as we worked in the Methodist Church kitchen. My prayers for comfort for Terry, Denise her grandchildren all those who feel her loss.
