Causby Jean Stanley, of Prichard, WV, the wife of Hayes Stanley, passed away quietly and peacefully at 8:25 a.m., Thursday, March 17, in Pittsburgh, PA following a brief illness. She and Hayes had been married for 72 years, having wed on January 20, 1944.

Born February 6, 1926, at Marrowbone Creek, WV, she was the daughter of the late Mary Aliss (Hannah) May and William Henry May. She was preceded in death by brothers William May, Sherman May, Blackburn May, Jeff May and Isaac May, the eldest son, who died in infancy, and sisters Pearl Dillon, Wilda Dillon, Georgia Vance, Lola Lackey, and twin sister Martha Jane Prince, and very special sister-in-law, Mabel (Sturgill) May.

She is also survived by a host of loving grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and many, many others.

She was a long-time member of the Samaria Church of Old Regular Baptist, Sardis Association, at Dingess, WV, and will be sorely missed by her brothers and sisters in the Church.

She worked as a cook at the former Dingess Grade School, as a clerk at the United States Post Office at Breeden, WV, and as a homemaker. It was said of her that “she birthed seven but she mothered dozens.”

At the Richmond-Callaham Funeral Home Chapel in Warfield, KY there will be a memorial service at 6 pm, Saturday, March 19.

At the Samaria Old Regular Baptist Church at Dingess, WV there will be a viewing and service from 7 pm until 9 pm, Sunday, March 20, with a funeral service at 11 am, Monday, March 21. Interment will follow at the Stanley Family Cemetery at Prichard, WV with a short graveside service. A reception will follow at 55 Stanley Drive in Prichard.
