“ I only got to meet my Aunt Charlene several years ago as I am her late 1/2 brother Kenneths daughter.
May my family know Charlene is with Grandpa Jack her momma Irene and siblings.
No more pain and fly free Charlene Fly Free.

“ *Charlene was one of my Great Aunts. She used to travel to my Grandma's house (her Sister Charlotte's,) in the summertime with her siblings when I was about 6yrs old in the early 90's. They'd all come to stay once a year and visit with us, and I remember during every trip Charlene would bring me a chocolate milk when she arrived with my other Great Aunts and Uncles. She was very close to my Aunt Irene growing up together, they were each other's rock. Charlene was a good woman and she will be sadly missed. †
With love to all my Ky family,
Prayers and hugs being sent ❤️💙💚💛💜

“ I always liked Charlene, I remember her from my years at Pigeon Roost Elementary, my little brother and her son was in the same class and on the same ball teams. I always loved cheering on the Wolves with Charlene and Shelia.
