“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I recall on several occasions my Dad would go down his memory lane and he would recall his childhood in Job, Ky. Many times he would recall men his age that he remembered when he was a kid. Rudolph Hammond was one. And Charles Cox was the other.

He always said Charles worked hard as far back as he could remember especially as a very young young man - in his early teens- working hard to help Boyd and Eula raise the family. Charles Cox was a tough man all his life. He was a hard worker. Devoted to his loved ones. I know this because my Dad told me.

What a legacy. I pray that peace, understanding, and grace be with you all...
