“ Hard to lose a friend who knew me from childhood up past middle-age. Clifford and Bertha were a fixture of the community and beloved by all. They raised wonderful children, who continue to carry on their legacy of friendship, kindness, interest in others and their community, and just being good people.

“ I remember coming to visit when I was a kid. We ran all over the place, played in the creek. Took baths in a big wash tub in the kitchen, we had to take turns. It was the best time of my life getting to come visit Uncle Clifford & Aunt Bertha & all the kids. I love you all with all my heart.
