“ You bring gone has been one of the hardest things I have ever gone through. As your 2nd year gone anniversary is coming up I reflect back on the day ad to what I could have changed or even just to remind you of the deep love I had/have felt for you. As I hear you voice in my head like u whispered to me I still hold you tightly. Love forever and always your Bunny.

“ Clyde was an amazing man with a huge heart. He didn't always have the best life but at the end he had found me and my kids and found a place to call home. Clyde loved so many things. His favorite singer was Jelly roll cause he could relate to so many of his songs. Clyde was very unique and that's what made him him. He didn't live how others wanted him to or dress like others wanted him to. He was his own amazing loving self. I will forever love you Clyde Carter. Pinky promise.
