I didn't know Columbia, but have often heard the stories told by my mom, Faye Sturgill Rakes and my aunt Freeda Sturgill Hensley about the times they all went "Sangin" and how one time Columbia Jane knocked a copperhead out of a bush with a stick. She was a great Lady and will be missed. My condolences to her family and friends.

“ Columbia, another Marrowbone Saint gone on to heaven. Hopefully we will all make it inside the pearly gates so we can see her once again. Many times I remember how comfortable I felt when I visited her home. She treated everyone like family. Thanks for all the good memories, Columbia Jane. I'm saying prayers for all your families left behind, and I am thanking you for all the good times I had teaching your children and grandchildren.

*With love and respect and sincere sadness,
