“ My sweet Uncle Curt... I have known you my whole life and you have been as good to me as a daddy. Better than my own daddy - you were always so good to me when I was a little girl and when I was a teen ager and gonna have my oldest daughter--- Yep my mom brought me to you and my aunt Cobby, she knew where I would be loved. You never ever turned your back on me - not even one time.... You were so good to all children. You My sweet uncle Curt knew how to love, you were good to people and did not expect favors in return I LOVE YOU . You will be missed and the world is not as nice today as it was a week ago.

“ Curt I didn't even know that you were sick. We spent many childhood days playing together and aggravating Aunt Mandy. We were like brothers. We laughed and cried together. We were poor but happy. We hoed Aunt Mandy's corn, and she gave you a dime and told you to divide it with me. We got mad and cut some of her corn down. So many memories. Where did time go? I wont even be able to be at your funeral. I have to b e at the hospital with my wife. I pray that you have everything right with God. I will never forget my little buddy. R.I.P until we meet again.

“ I am so glad to have grown up and shared so many good times with you, my cousin Curt. You were more like a brother to the Muncy Clan. We spent so many moments with you, Causby, and your children. Thanks so much for your friendship, your caring ways, and your loving personality. We will always love you and will always hold your memory dear to our heart. God be with you, and may he comfort your family as time goes by.

*Sincerely, your cousin/brother and friend,
Herb Muncy*
