

Cynthia Lynn Ward

May 16, 1963 - October 18, 2016

Cynthia Lynn Ward 53, of Tomahawk Kentucky, passed away Tuesday, October 18, 2016 at the University of Kentucky Medical Center in Lexington Kentucky.

She was born May 16, 1963, in Columbus Ohio. The daughter of Glen and Wanda Cline also of Tomahawk.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by her husband of 34 years Jack Ward. She is survived by one brother Greg Cline of West Van Lear, Ky.

Cindy is also survived by her beloved nephews Justin Cline of West Van Lear, Ky and Jordan Ward of Paintsville, Ky. One niece she adored Dara Renee Ward of Paintsville, Ky.

Cindy loved her family. She was dedicated wife and homemaker. She loved holiday gatherings with her aunts and uncles, cousins and in-laws. She enjoyed her trips to the beach and to Gatlinburg to check out all the shops and food. She loved her special friends Sharon and Kelley Hinkle and her cousin Sherry who was like a sister to her.

Cindy was a person of many talents. She enjoyed baking. She loved making gifts to cheer people up. She was very good with crafts. She loved her church family. She enjoyed music and loved to sing in church. She loved to decorate the church for special events especially Vacation Bible School and Christmas. She did the church bulletin each week. She enjoyed decorating her Christmas tree each year with many of the ornaments that she made She had a wonderful sense of humor and loved to laugh and joke. She was laughing and singing the night before she passed away.

In 2001 Cindy was one of the first people in Martin County to get a kidney transplant which she kept until the end of her life.

Cindy had many illnesses especially the last three years of her life. They prevented her from doing the many things she loved, but she never gave up or quit even up to her final breath.

Cindy was strong yet fragile, determined, yet gentle, dogmatic, yet kind, she was afraid, yet fearless. But all the people and things, cannot compare her greatest love of all, Jesus Christ, Her Savior who carried to her heavenly home. It is to Him we are most grateful.

Funeral services will be held at the Inez First Baptist Church on Saturday, October 22, 2016 at 11:00am with Sam Schmidt and Paul Schmidt officiating. “ To the family of Cindy Cline Ward, please except my sincere condolences. Cindy and I were sopranos in the Inez FBC Choir and I certainly enjoyed every minute we spent together bouncing high notes off each other. I will miss her here on earth and look forward to joining her in Heaven's Holy Choir.

I pray for her family, may God comfort them during this sorrowful time, bless them in the future, and uplift them with cherish memories of this golden lady, Cindy.

My love and prayers to her family.

Dearest Cindy, we grew up together, the best of friends. I'll never forget spending the night with you so many times. How much fun we had together. Picking on Greg. LOL I didn't get to visit with you much after I moved away, but I always thought of you and I'm thankful for the few times we did get to meet when I came home to visit. You'll always be in my heart and my thoughts, dear friend. Vicky and I will be lonely without you with us, we three, but we'll cherish your memory always. Fly happy, dear Angel. Love you Always, Mary (Penix) Johnson
