“ Eddie was a great man and funny as could be. He was one man who was good to me and treated me like a man actually should a woman. Our relationship may have been different but I love him and will always. He loved his wife and missed her so much. I was someone to keep him company. Some didn't agree with it but I'm thankful for him and that I was his wife. I regret not being there in the last months of his life more than anything. I will see you again one day and Deloris is there as well. RIP my late husband with all my love hugs and kisses

“ The first time I ever met Eddie was when our mutual good friend Tommy brought Sandra down to my house, because for a couple of days she had been having colic or thrush mouth, and was having trouble eating and sleeping : And Eddie and Tommy knew about an old wives fable, that says, if a man who has never seen his own father blows 3 times in the babies mouth , it will cure it and go away, Well I had never heard that one, and I had never seen my biological father, but I could see that Eddie was very worried about his little girl Sandra,...so I picked up the baby, and held her in my arms and blew in her mouth 3times, Eddie and Tom thanked me and returned home. .The next day I found out that the baby slept well and ate good from then on, I can't explain it, but that's just what happened. ..I became friends with Eddie then, and he ALWAYS was friendly and kind and would help anyone he could, and share anything he had, Eddie, Tom, and I, played bluegrass guitars together for years and sung three part harmony together for some time and our families all got together most weekends and had special times. ..I'm thankful that Eddie got saved and accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his saviour and one day I'll see him again on the streets of gold in Heaven above along with his dear wife Delores /Loche...I loved them both.

“ I will always remember Uncle Eddie, loved him very much. Have many memories of him playing and singing with my grandpa when I was a kid. I can remember him coming home from work in his truck when I would be at the house playing with the kids. Hi and Deloris were very loving people they opened there home to me when I had no where to live and we're very good to me. Always treatment me like there own. I will miss you very much. My prayers and sympathy for the family. I love you all.
