“ my heart is sad today, I just found out ,I loved her too ,she was my only link to my mommy,her sister Kathleen.She would tell me stories about when they were young,,one time she helped me to figure out who was in this picture of a baby I had found in my mommys house as I myself was grieving for her after that terrible accident.For some odd reason I could not throw this picture away ,even though I had no idea who it was ,I called Aunt Edith and we talked about the picture ,she described it to me in detail.It was an 8x10 baby picture of my mommy.i cried and thought of how I had such connection to that picture,and just couldn't let it go and thanks to her I found out why.My heart goes out to all who loved her ,Love ,Linda

“ Attended school with Granny's wonderful children at Crum High School in the 1960s. There can be no better tribute to this dear lady than the kindness, pleasure, service, sacrifice, and love her children brought to, and shared with our community and the communities where each later resided.

Through the lives of those children each and all of us were truly blessed by Granny Edith and Uncle Chris. To have shared the love in their heart of hearts, their grace, the warmth of their spirit, and to have called them friends and neighbors was an honor indeed.

“ I always thought as we called her Aunt Edith was a very sweet lady played many days in her yard and she always was like our mom when we were there. I remember one time cutting my foot in her yard with a big piece of glass and she was such a good nurse to wrap me all up and cleaned it out then she gave me big hug and told me she was sorry, I could not understand her telling me she was sorry but she felt it was her fault because the glass was in her yard. Never heard this angelic lady say anything about anyone always full of love and compassion love you Aunt Edith RIP see you again one day. May God comfort the family and give you peace in your time of loss. The Brumfield and Workman families were like one big family.

“ I have so many, but I think this one is one of my favorites. We all know back in the 80's I was a wild child. I was staying with Wilson and his wife and mom in a trailer about a mile down the road from Granny's house. Well one night I got just a little to drunk and thought I had been locked out of Wilson's house. So I walked barefoot in my pantyhose all the way to my sweet Granny B's at 3am in the morning. She took me her loving arms and wrapped me up until I was nice and warm, the whole time holding me as if I was still that lil girl that she would hold for hours on end if I wanted her to. I awoke to pantyhose wrapped around my knees torn all to pieces and the smell of the best biscuit and gravy breakfast I ever tasted. But then my sweet Granny B turned on that look on me and I knew the lecture was coming, While holding me on her lap telling me how worried she was about what could have happened to me and to never do that again, which I never did :). Well I felt 2 inches tall of course, I would never intentionally want to worry her. Well as always after the lecture she would hug me real tight and tell me don't worry Granny still loves you now go on your way. I have soooooo many good memories that I could go on forever. Just know I loved and will miss Granny B. I wish I could be there tomorrow, but you will be in my thoughts I love you all.

PS: doesn't have internet right now and she would to say how much she loved her Granny B, and was very happy to see everyone tonight, and wishes she could also be there tomorrow. She sends her love to ALL.
