“ The little town of Crum, WV. had many prominent families and the Perry's were one of them. Elias, Mike and James were all friends of mine. Woodrow taught me in History Class and James taught me in English. All were Great People. Elias was a Christian and is finally "Home with the Lord." He will be missed here on Earth. “ Oh my seeing this saddens my heart . I was his neighbor as a little girl in Crum . My mother rented the house next door to the Perry's that they owned .Later as a adult to learn he was a member and a preacher in the Church of Christ . I loved hearing Elias teach while he was at Beauty . He was down to earth and always made learning the Bible understandable and encouraging. Prayers the family be comforted knowing he is safe with God . May God bless you Shelby , Elias and Jermey with your broken hearts missing him .

Sad to hear about losing another Mountaineer, but so thankful Heaven gained another member!! Sympathy to all of his family and friends. Never had his Dad as a teacher, but his Uncle James was one of my favorite teachers. Also loved Noreda and Mary. Precious memories. Ursula Maynard Dingess, CHS class of 65
