“ If u knew Boo you were blessed! He was so special to us all! Dukie I wanna say I am so happy you allowed him to concur his dreams! He lived is life happy & no different than any other teenager! Other than he had a momma he never feared! A momma that allowed him to bring his muddy bike in the house & give it a bath instead of a washing! Lol! Boo knew he could persuade u to let him do anything he wanted! If not him or a buddy/sabra would talk to you while the other would sneak! Because he knew you all loved him & he loved u all! Prayers

“ I just learned this after noon of the passing of this young man. My heart sank when I was told he had passed away. I will never forget the first time I met him . His sister Sabra was in the head-start class that I worked in.

Everyday when his mother came to pick up Sabra she had him in her arms. I always went to talk to him and my heart fell in love with him .I really wanted him to attend head-start and I was in hopes of being his aid. The family decided not to sent him at first but later I learned he started school .I am so happy his life was filled with good things and busy things that he loved. You are in your wonder fathers hands and my prayer is for the family to feel a peace that he is happy and safe in the arms of God.God rest your sweet sweet soul.

“ Boo was like a member of our family. He had a sneaky grin that we will always remember.
We loved him beyond words of explanation.
The family is in our thoughts and prayers.
