“ To Marie, Gloria and all of Ethel's loved ones: May God help you through this time of loss, giving you peace, comfort and strength as only He can. Take comfort in knowing our loss is Heavens gain. She was a wonderful Christian lady. Even though Tug River was between us, our lives were connected: with Ethel working at the post office with Addie May and later being the post master: with our going numerous times thru Ed and Doris's yard, after crossing the river: and from living directly across the river from Mr. and Mrs. Chafins. Many times my mom and Mrs. Chafins would holler at each other from across the river. I have many wonderful memories from those days. Life in another era! I am sure that you, Ethel's family, have many wonderful memories of all those days gone by, as well. Treasure them, share them with each other and let them be a comfort to you as well. My prayers are with you at this time of loss. With love in Christ, Rosemary (Maynard) Salmons.
