Oh, Lon I'm so so sorry for you're loss. I know everyone called him whitey but I always called him Eugene. I loved working for him he was always so nice to me. I felt at home and was looking forward to go to his house to work. I met his daughter Connie and his granddaughter who was very sweet. He would always talk to me about how he loved his family and how he missed his wife. He said he's never had a heartbreak like he did when she passed but he knew he would be with her again. I'm so glad I met this man and his family. God Bless you all

Whitey possessed that rare gift of making everyone in the room happier and... maybe a better person than we really were. He was kind, generous and, like his wife and children, the kind of neighbors we all should be lucky enough to have. Whitey was one of the few people I ever knew you went to the hospital to visit because he cheered YOU up. Plus which, he taught me Rook, a card game I've never played without thinking of him. And never will. Bless you, old friend..
