I love my Aunt Daisy deeply💔
I loved her like my own mother, my mother was amazing and so was my Aunt Daisy, I spent a many a summers with her, some would laugh and call me little Daisy cause I wanted to be like her. She loved me and I knew it, I miss her deeply but I Praise God I know I will see her again along wit my Lord and Savior and my parent's as well as other family members who have gone on before. Aunt Daisy loved her kids and her family dearly, But she Loved Her LORD and Savior with all her heart, she had a great testimony. I Praise God she's delivered from that awful disease that took her from us never to hurt her or her family anymore, she has a new body and mind and is Praising our Lord. I Praise God for the great memories, I will always love and Remember the Best Aunt in the world to me. I praise God also for you Ima her amazing daughter who Loved cared for and stayed by her side through it all💔 GOD BLESS COMFORT LEAD AND GUIDE YOU ALL THROUGH THIS VALLY🙏 Till we are United again I Love my Aunt Daisy🥹
