

Freddie Gay Mills

August 13, 1942 - December 25, 2016

Freddie Gay Mills was born to Fred and Trixie Hall Mills of Tomahawk, KY on August 13, 1942. Freddie passed away on December 25, 2016 at Prestonsburg Healthcare Center in Prestonsburg, KY. He was preceded in death by both parents, his sisters, Daisy and (Jim) Spears, Audrey and (Roy) Collier and his brother, Billy and (Geraldine) Mills. He was survived by his wife, Joanne Hickman Mills of Inez and his sister, Lois and (Palmer) Gillespie of Hager Hill and a host of nieces and nephews.

Freddie's services will be at Inez, Richmond Callaham Funeral Home. Visitation 6:00 to 9:00 on December 26 and funeral services, 1:00 on December 27. Services will be conducted by Jack Ward.

Freddie was well known and liked throughout our area. He was a retired substitute school teacher, avid wrestling fan, had a strong Christian faith and was well known throughout churches in the local community.

The family would like to express sincere thank to the many people in our community who took time to watch over Freddie in these past few years as he struggled with dementia. There are probably several we are not aware of, but particularly want to thank, Jack Horn and staff, Jimmy Ferguson and special friend Bootsie Farley for showing understanding and patience. The employees at Martin County Public Library, Roy Collier Community Center, Martin County

Senior Citizens, Sheriff John Herman Kirk and his deputies, The Robinson Family, Rayne Preece, members of Inez Freewill Baptist Church and others who assisted in so many ways!

In lieu of flowers, please donate to Martin County Senior Citizen Center.

“ R.I.P Freddie, You will be missed by all. I miss seeing and talking with you, There was never a time when we ran into each other, that you didn't stop to talk and share something with me. I was always happy to take the time to talk with you. I will miss not having you walking through Inez to wave or blow my horn at you. You were a good person Freddie. I will never forget you. your battle is over, and you are at rest now.

“ Freddie, although your brother, Billie Ray was my brother-in-law, his marriage to my sister, Geraldine made you a family member also. I have always cared deeply for your welfare and knew you to be a very spiritual person. May you be at peace with God and I will tell Hulk Hogan you will see him in the great beyond. With love and great memories, Carol Jean (Necessary) York.

“ Freddie was a wonderful and unique man. When I was a young boy/man and would see Freddie either at church or out and about with Mom, his personality and smile were so infectious and filled with happiness. He was an ORIGINAL.....a word I can only use to describe a few I have encountered in life. Rest well Freddie and know that you left behind a legacy of that has touched the hearts of so many.

“ Freddie was a great person and friend. He was loved by so many people in our community. There probably isn't a person who didn't know who he was. For us middle aged people he was always smiling as we walked into the school wondering if he was going to be our substitute teacher. Loved listening to his stories about Hulk Hogan and his trips to go see him (because I myself was a wrestling fan and of Hulk Hogan's). He also was the minister who married me and my husband, so that he had a special place in my heart. He was a caring and loving man to all he knew. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him and this community sure lost one of a kind. Rest In Peace Freddie Gay.

Freddie was such a friendly person. He always took the time to speak to me or throw his hand up where ever he saw me. I miss seeing him walk up and down the road. I would see him come out of the house with his Bible under his arm on Sunday mornings, as he would walk to church. Rest in peace Freddie, you will be missed. Your friend, Gayle Howell

Mr. Freddie Mills was my college buddy at Morehead. (There is a great pic in the Raconteur of him and Larry Moore arriving on campus to start college.) I never heard anyone ever say a bad word about this very kind, Christian man. He was one of the very good ones and will be missed by everyone.

Freddie was a great guy I got to know him through our love of professional wrestling, he even took me to my first WCW pay-per-view and then to Monday Nitro, I miss those times and will never forget those awesome memories.
