“ Oh my goodness! So sorry to hear this. Geneva was such a sweet person. I knew her from the Pigeon Roost days all the way to the Sheldon Clark days. She always had that sweet smile for you. Go rest high on that mountain Geneva. Praying for all the family in their time of loss. Until we meet again my friend.

“ Wow to share just one memory would be hard, growing up as a young girl we were inseparable always at each other's house, so many nights just giggling and laughing over anything and everything. There was this one time we were in a Christmas play at Lovely Freewill our part was to wear a white button down blouse with red skirts and we had to hold a candle and sing we did good for a few seconds and then we turn to look at each other it was on we started giggling and couldn't finish our song. Needless to say our moms were a little unhappy with our laughing. Throughout the years we may not had talked everyday, but we were there for each other through the good and bad of life no matter what happen. I will miss by dear and sweet friend, Geneva but I know she is happy to be home with her beloved son, Josh. Rest In Peace my precious friend
