“ Memories of her beautiful Christmas lights making our small town so festive during Christmas will always be remembered. She always had a smile for me every time I ever saw her weather it was me bringing her something to sew for me years ago or seeing her at Grandparents day at Warfield Elementary. Rest In Peace Mrs Hinkle and may God give her children/ grandchildren comfort in the days ahead of them .

“ I am so sorry for the loss of my beautiful Aunt Gladys, I have such wonderful memories of spending time at her home as a young girl. I am grateful to have visited with her a few years back. My sister Anna and son was with me. It felt wonderful to go back to the place I grew up and visited with someone as sweet and kind as she was to all us kids! Rest In Peace for someday we shall meet again! Love and prayers to all my cousins. 🙏🙏🙏
