“ When Grady was a little boy he would play hard and come in starving. He would bow his head and pray... "Gracy Gossie, Gracy Gossie, Amen" We grew up together. We were best friends. To his lovely wife and children, I am so sorry for your loss.

When we was kids growing up they wasn't much we didn't do. Me Joey and Grady would always get in the most trouble. We was mean as rattlesnakes but we always watched out for each other. RIP Grady and I hope we get to meet again one day.
