Condolences to the family. My first memories of Greg are from my childhood, as we attended the same church and Sunday school services. Fly high, Greg.

I really didn't know Gregory but as I visited with my brother at the nursing home I would see Gregory sitting in the door way of his room smiling at the visitors as they came in. I noticed his small beautiful little blue desk. I told him one day I really liked his desk. So I light this little blue candle for him .
