

Harmon Franklin Stroud

March 12, 1940 - November 8, 2014

Harmon Franklin Stroud, age 74 of Wilsondale, West Virginia joined family and friends at home in heaven on November 8, 2014.

He was welcomed there by his parents, Shorty and Susie (Marcum) Stroud, three brothers; Paul David Stroud, Willis Ray (Karla) Stroud and Jesse Lee (Gusty) Stroud, two sisters; Mary Joanne (Carl) Hughes and Eva Sue (Henry) Hughes and granddaughter (Rick and Susie) Cassie Nicole Brewer.

Those left to cherish his memory are his wife of 52 years, Linda at home.

Daughter; Leona Sue (Rick) Brewer of Marrowbone, Carol Faye (James) Spaulding and Linda June (Lewis) Hannah of Breeden; one son, Harmon Tony (Leela) Stroud of Van Lear, Kentucky, eight grandchildren; Leanne (Hank) Messer, Bethany (Dillon) Adams and Emma "Shril" Hannah of Breeden, Ami Brewer of Marrowbone, Jordan White, Jeremy White, Juliana Stroud and Jacob Stroud all of Van Lear, Kentucky, and three great-grandchildren; John Ira, Hayden Lee and Henry Lawson Messer all of Breeden, WV. He is also survived by, four sisters; Katherine (Doug) Payne and Martha (Thomas) Madison of Indiana, Ruth (late Wiley) Miller of Corbin, Kentucky and June (Raybon) Williamson of Dunlow, along with two brothers; Van (Easter) Stroud of East Fk, 12 Pole and James (Patty) Stroud of Maher, WV.

Harmon was an equipment operator at Marrowbone Development for 18 years. He was a farmer, a carpenter, a "shade tree mechanic" and cross cut saw and mule team logger.

He was known as "that little short Preacher" on the job and sang with The Stroud Family for 36 years. His most proud accomplishment was he knew Jesus and given a few minutes he would tell you so.

Funeral services will be held at the House of Prayer church on Tuesday, November 11, 2014 at 11:00am with George Nelson and Manuel Ferguson officiating. Burial will follow at the Stroud Family Cemetery. Friends may visit at the church on Monday, November 10, 2014 starting at 6:00pm.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Richmond-Callaham Funeral Home, Inez, Kentucky.
