“ Pastor Dorsey was truly a good man. He helped me to know and to have my faith in Jesus. No matter what he would always be there to talk, guide, and support. I know he’s at the those gates smiling and waiting on his church flock to meet him one day, and I can’t wait to see him again. We loved you much, Dorsey. Thank you for everything.

“ My heart is broken for his family. My prayers go out to sister Billie, his children and his grandchildren. Brother Dorcey was my pastor and he was such a wonderful man. I loved him dearly and he is going to be missed. But I’m sad for his family and I’m sad for his church family, but I am so happy for brother Dorcey. Because he is all Christians want to be. I love you, brother Dorcey and I will see you again! Connie Sutton
