“ Always happy, loving and ready to giggle like a little girl, that's how Ina Ruth was. Katrina and Jimmy you were the light of her life. If someone asked about you her face would just light up. Prayers and I know she is shouting the victory song.

“ I am sorry that I missed so many years with this wonderful lady. When I was young I got to go to Kentucky and visit with my family and get to know Ina Ruth and her family. When I grew up and got out on my own I did not get to visit as much as I did with my parents. I have in the last few years got to get back in touch with Ina Ruth and with her help got to know more of my family. Thank you Ina Ruth for all the Family reunions, I would not have met so many of my relatives that we missed when we came in from Georgia. We love this sweet lady and will miss her so much. Mom and I will not be able to come in for the funeral because mom is just not able at this time to make the trip.

Love and prayers to the family- Minerva and Donna
