“ Gosh! My best friend JENEE'S BIG BUBBY..... This was one of the corniest and most funny ppl I ever knew no matter what kind of mood I was in no doubt Brian would make u smile and laugh; always! Brian loved his family so and cherished them dearly and I know this for a fact he had told me several times.... Gosh, Brian always would give me the very best advice about life in general or my crazy situations I would get myself into and lecture me but only in a good and caring way.... I can't to the life of me imagine how his children, mother Lois, Jenee' and Kayla will ever fill the viod of Brian because I know there will never ever be another like him; never! Brian was so kind, funny, witty, loving, ever so caring of all he came in contact with, smart, had a energetic smile that could light the world up! I'll miss ya dearly Ole' Brain and so will so many more my friend! RIP Brian Haney-Fly High.....

“ A heart breaking pain that will always be inside me knowing he was to young to leave all of us. Every day I think of the many things through out the years that makes me smile when I think of Brian. I am glad God gave me my Nephew Brian. Many memories of him and my son Michael growing up together. Love you Brian and you will always have a place in my heart. Will see you in heaven one day.

“ I can't believe that he went like he did and so soon . I remember one time him and I and Janet and Junbug all went to a cabin one weekend and had a great time together cooking out and having family time . He was my brother n laws cousin . We all had a great time just reminiscing. My prayers go out to all his family and friends and children . May god bless you all and keep you safe and be with you all through this tough time
