“ My condolences to Jim’s family. I really enjoyed working with Jim before his retirement, his humor and compassion for others will be missed. I remember he always hung out in the teller area talking to staff. I am thankful for the time I knew him. Ginger Kane

“ Jenny, I am so sorry for you loss. I have missed you and Jim at church for a long time. I always looked forward to coming into church from Sunday school and seeing him sitting there in the second row and being able to shake his hand and see him smile. I will miss him. He was a sweet, kind little man.

“ Jenny, my prayers are with you and Diann now and always. Jim has held a place in my heart and always will. The many hours we talked, the memories we shared and the times we've laughed. All are so very precious to me. He's such a special gentleman with an enormous amount of knowledge and experience and many stories. I loved my talks with him. A piece of my heart is missing now. Much love to all the family.

Jenny, I sympathize with the loss of your husband.

Let me know if I can help, or be of service to you. I miss Jim's quite humor, and his efforts to help the historical society with our worth while projects to preserve our county's history.

I am thankful for his time in our lives, and I will remember him as a friend.
