"Jamie" James Hubert Preece, born January 23, 1963. Suffers this world no more. On the evening of the 23rd of April, approximately 9:30 pm, Jamie left this world... He is restless and weary no more! Jamie was the oldest son of James Harold and Mary Evelyn Preece. Both of which preceded him in death. Left behind in this world are Jamie's wife Kim, and their four children James Daniel, Jacob Del (and daughter-in-law Tracy), Samantha Marie Lynn, and John Benjamin Preece. Jamie had one brother, and sister-in-law, Greg, and Penny Preece, as well as the nephew's they graced him with, James "Casey", Hunter Gregory, and Evin Wade Preece. He has many other family members that loved and prayed for his well being. His mother's family were Presley's and his Father's of course Preece. He grew up in the woods, ridges and hollows of Martin County KY. He lived all of his growing up days just past Wolf Creek Colliers up Big Branch. He attended Pigeon Roost Elementary, and Graduated from Sheldon Clark High School in 1981. He married and moved to Huntington, WV in 1988 where his family was raised. He started out in the Coal Mines of KY, and WV as a certified surface and underground miner, and was later a Journeyman Painter, working out of District Council 53 in Charleston, WV.

Funeral services will be held at the Warfield Chapel of the Richmond-Callaham Funeral Home in Warfield, Kentucky on Wednesday, April 27, 2016 at 2:00pm with Lonnie Smith officiating. Burial will follow at the Warfield Cemetery. Friends may visit at the chapel on Tuesday, April 26, 2016 from 7:00-9:00pm. Arrangements are under the direction of the Richmond-Callaham Funeral Home, Inez, Kentucky.
