“ My heart is so broken that I just can't express the deep pain and grief in my flesh. This lady treated me like family. I had Christmas dinners with her. Cook outs, birthday parties for her children, and trips to the hospitals and doctors appointments. I can't hardly imagine my life without her. I can scarcely believe the cruel reality of her passing but the joyous celebration in heaven as she walked in through the gates. Jenny was a bright light in a dark world. I will never forget you nor stop loving you. Until we meet again my friend. Love. Keith.
