

Jewell Rose Williamson

September 16, 1928 - December 7, 2014

Jewell Rose Herald Williamson, 86, of Crum, passed away Sun., Dec. 7, 2014, at St. Vincent's Medical Center in Middleburg, Fla.

Born Sept. 16, 1928, in Wayne County, W.Va., she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Ollie Corns Herald. Jewell was also preceded in death by her husband, Carter Williamson, in August 2014, and two brothers, David Herald of Prichard, and Clarence Herald of Jacksonville, Fla. Jewell is survived by three loving daughters, Lynda Asbury of Prichard, Katherine (Denny) Miller of Man, and Margie (Marty) Dowling of Middleburg, Fla.; six grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Grace Williamson of Prichard and Mary Williamson of Kenova; brothers, Jennings Herald of Charleston and Clyde Herald of Kingston, N.C., and Roy Herald and Johnny Herald, both of Prichard, and many nieces and nephews that she adored.

Jewell received both her bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Marshall University. She was a teacher and principal for Logan County Board of Education and retired from the Mingo County Board of Education as the Principal of Marrowbone Creek Elementary.

Services will be held at 1 p.m. Sun., Dec. 14, at Richmond-Callaham Funeral Home in Warfield, Ky, with Elders Glen Penix, Ted Asbury, and Flem Arrowood officiating. Burial will follow in the Herald Corns Cemetery on Jennies Creek Road.

Visitation will be from 6-9 p.m. Saturday evening at the funeral home.
