“ I remember Kelly Joe when he was little, I was in class with him from 1st to 5th grade. He was something else. He always smiled and was a big cut up. I remember I sat beside him in first grade, I was sooo scared of our teacher, but he made everything fun in 1st grade. I remember in 3rd grade we were in Mrs. James (his granny) class. Every time she would leave the class he would do something, run around the room or something before she would return. One time he walked on top of the desks and put a foot print on my writing paper. When I turned my paper in Mrs. James asked how I got a shoe print on my paper. I just looked at her and said "don't ask, you wouldn't believe how it happened" I'm sorry for the family and their loss, my prayers are with you. From Sharon Kay Staton
