“ Huff was my bus driver as a small girl he knew my family was financially struggling. He would give us gum or just do little things to make us feel loved. He always made me feel important. After the death of my husband he would call me to visit and pray with him. His family invited me to dinner on his last birthday. I truly felt like I belonged. I am forever thankful for those memories.

“ So many memories. When he and my sister Linda married they came through our back door and I was a little angry. I did not want Linda to go. But he was so funny, always playing around with us. He would grow his beard just where it was bristles and "beard" us. We used to ride sleds right beside our old house. He was always jumping on with Linda, wonder why??? Huff caught me, Iva and Patty in a bottle of his Vodka, not long after he and Linda wed. What a night. !Have to laugh about that now. Huff was always a good Santa too. He did this many times at our house over the years. A few years back he introduced me to Roma greenbeans; he gave me a start. Now when I plant or eat them I think of him. If I could talk to him I would say " Rest in peace Huff. I feel like you finished well." And see you on the other side!!!
