LLOYD BREWER - OBITUARY

It is with the heaviest of hearts, Annetta Crigger and husband Brad, Angie Crigger and husband Greg of Kermit, West Virginia, announce that their loving father, Lloyd Brewer, 84, of Kermit, West Virginia took flight to his Heavenly home on Thursday, February 17, 2022 after a lingering illness. He was born in Mingo County, West Virginia on March 16, 1937, to the late Selwyn and Maudie (Marcum) Brewer. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his loving wife of 56 years, Violet (Newsome) Brewer, a sister, Carrie Newsome, brothers: Bob Brewer, Fred Brewer, Paul Brewer, and a very special nephew, Doug Newsome.

Lloyd is survived by two precious grandchildren, Jamie (Tashia) Crigger and Chandra (Jeff) Kirk; six great grandchildren: Amber (Tyler), Leandra (Jay), Alexis (Daniel), Kaylee, Nataleigh, Carsen and Caden, and four great-great grandsons, Brentley, Ryker, Remington and Keenan. Also surviving is his special caregiver/chef, who became a special member of our family, Joyce Sturgell, of Kermit, West Virginia.

Lloyd was dedicated to serving God, his family and his community. He was a faithful member of The Rosetown Church for many years, where he also served as a Deacon. He was a devoted and loving father to his precious daughters and Papaw to his grandchildren he so lovingly referred to as “the babies.” He too was a retired coal miner from Marrowbone Development Company. His coworkers knew him as Hard Rock, others knew him as Uncle Lloyd, and all knew him to be a good and humble man.

Friends may visit at The Rosetown Church on Marrowbone Creek, Kermit, West Virginia, on Saturday, February 19, 2022, from 6:00-9:00 p.m. Funeral services will be held on Sunday, February 20, 2022, at 1:00 p.m. at The Rosetown Church in Kermit, West Virginia, with Bobby Perry officiating. Burial will follow at the Selwyn Brewer Cemetery located at Marrowbone Creek, West Virginia. Arrangements are under the direction of the Callaham Funeral Home, Inez, Kentucky.

Lloyd Brewer 84, of Kermit, WV passed away at his home on Thursday, February 17, 2022.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00pm on Sunday, February 20, 2022 at the Rosetown Freewill Baptist Church in Kermit, WV with Bobby Perry officiating. Burial will follow at the Selwyn Brewer Cemetery in Kermit, WV. Friends may visit at the church on Saturday after 6:00pm. Arrangements are under the direction of the Callaham Funeral Home, Inez, KY.
