In the early morning hours of Saturday, April 29, 2017, Lucinda Faye Harper heard her Heavenly Father say, "Welcome Home, hold my hand as we step through the gate. Look around you, this is your Eternal Home".

Faye was the daughter of the late Walter Pack and Lena Fairchild Dent, born in a little country town of Chanderville, Kentucky on November 24, 1926.

She was a sales representative for Mingo Stores, Caplan's, and Heilig Myers. At the time of her death, she was the oldest resident of Kermit, more importantly, she was the oldest Christian.

Faye was a virtuous woman. She was a faithful servant of the Lord and the oldest member of the Kermit Freewill Baptist Church. She attending church, read and studied her Bible and done her best to care for her family and others in her community.
