“ I send my condolences to Marcia’s family. After comparing notes on our family history, we found out we were cousins through our common ancestor Mark Dempsey, who was the first judge of Martin County, KY. She was a great genealogy researcher and I only regret that I did not call her and let her know that the results of my mother’s AncestryDNA test shows she shares DNA with other descendants of Mark Dempsey, confirming our research. The last time I spoke with Marcia on the phone she told me about her medical condition and I tried to offer some words of encouragement. Despite her illness, she had such an amazing spirit and determination. She talked about how much she loved being a Christian and how blessed she felt when she was able to sing about her faith in church. I am sure she is being rewarded for her unrelenting faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. Rest in peace my dear cousin.

Thank you Linda. Marcia was a people-person and loved getting to know people. During the last almost 4 years, her goal was to get to know everyone's name in the nursing home and to know something about them!! She never lost her smile!
