

Marvin Anthony Strunk

March 11, 1972 - February 9, 2026

Marvin Anthony Strunk, 53, of Kermit, WV, passed away February 9, 2026, at his home following a brief illness. He was born March 11, 1972, in Logan, West Virginia, the son of Marvin and Geneva Strunk.

Marvin was a coal miner for many years and enjoyed sports such as baseball and basketball.

Marvin is survived by his loving wife of 11 years, Joannell Strunk, as she would call him her “pretty boy”; his children, Nina and Chris Caudill, Tiffany Strunk, Anthony Strunk, and his baby girl, whom he loved like his own daughter, Lilly Dingess. Marvin loved all 10 of his grandkids with all his heart. He is also survived by his sister, Ramona Strunk, and brother, Garland Strunk, both of Cleveland, Ohio; sister- and brother-in-law survivors include Tilton and Norma Hinkle; Jeannie and Rick Wellman; Bonnie Jarvis; and Mitchell and Alma Hinkle. Mitchell was a brother to Marvin and his deer-hunting buddy. Marvin leaves behind many very special people whom he loved with all his heart, including his aunt, Nyoka Crank; nieces, Amanda Wellman, Amy Wellman, Ricky Wellman, Calah and Shina; and a special cousin, Selena Handshaw.

The family wishes to express their deepest gratitude to Helena Workman for her unwavering friendship, love, and compassionate care, which brought immense comfort to Marvin and our family.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00pm, Thursday, February 12, 2026, at the Light House Community Church in Kermit, WV, with Keith Brumfield, Heath Alley and Jason Hanshaw officiating. Burial will follow at the Mann Cemetery. Friends may visit at the church on Wednesday from 6:00-9:00pm. Arrangements are under the direction of the Callaham Funeral Home, Inez, KY.
