Mary was my friend at Evans Hardware. We have discussed quality of paint, flowers, gardenstones, and many other topics regarding the store. We never discussed anything personal, however, genuininess with always being a good person and telling the truth stood out to me!! I always yelled out to say Hi to her and called her by name but I don't know that she knew my name!! She would just respond with a "hi"!! RIP my friend!!

“ Mary n I started school together 52+ yrs. ago. She was one of my very earliest friends, other then my siblings. Once upon a time when my world was pretty dark, of all the people I know, Mary was the one who reminded me it wouldn't be dark forever. I have never forgotten nor will I ever forget that guesture of love n friendship. We have reminded friends for all those 52+yrs. I will forevermiss my friend but as long as I live she will live on in my heart. RIP my friend one day we will meet again. Virgie
