

May T. Sites

January 18, 1947 - December 1, 2015

May T. Stacy Sites, age 68 of Louisa, Kentucky left behind the troubles of this world for God's glorious paradise on Monday, December 1, 2015 at home with her daughter, Donna, and family by her side . The fifth of nine children, May, was born January 18, 1947 at Threeforks, Kentucky to parents, Jeff and Ollie Moore Stacy. May was an humble woman who was always willing to lend a helping hand, give an ear to listen, provide a shoulder to lean on, and who had a warm heart that gave lots of love. May had suffered much illness and heartache throughout her life, but never neglected to be thankful and praise God for her blessings. She was a homemaker that always opened her door and heart to any and all, especially to the kids who grew up around her children that she "adopted" and treated as her own.

In addition to her parents, May was preceded in death by her husband of more than forty years , Sammy, a son, Randy, and one brother, Clarence Stacy.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Donna & Marcus Howard and by her son and daughter-in-law, Tony & Lou Sites all of Louisa. She is also survived by seven grandchildren, Andrea Howard (Christopher Lyons), Daniel (Kayla) Howard, Tyler (Kindra) Howard, Cody Sites, and Logan Sites (Brooke Moore) all of Louisa, Kentucky and Jacob and Ethan Daniels of Tomahawk, Kentucky. May also is survived by three great-grandsons, Connor York, Levi Howard, and Jensen Howard, all of whom she said were her new-found pride and joys. She also leaves behind five sisters, Helen (Johnny) Reed, Mary Richardson, Dora (Jessie) Dillon, Sadie (Frank) Marcum, Azzie (George) Adkins, and two brothers, Sampson (Patricia) Stacy, and Elmer (Nina) Stacy. May is also survived by her husband's siblings, Rita, Doris, Mary, Sharlene, Nancy, Lloyd, and Dock, all of whom she always said felt like her own brothers and sisters and that she loved them just as much. She is also survived by a host of nieces and nephews.

May had asked her daughter, Donna, to promise to relate a message to all her family and friends on her behalf once her health reached "that" point and to again tell everyone who attended her funeral the same message. Her message was this----- "That it is okay. I have a better place to go when I die. For anyone who thought or felt like they should visit me but didn't for whatever reason, know that I forgive you for not coming, so forgive yourself, too! Everyone has lives and obligations of their own and I am only one person in a big old world. I don't want anyone to have any regrets concerning me. I understand people are busy with their own kids, work, and life in general. Just know that if you were ever a part of my life in any way, I love you, and always will. If I forgot who you were when I saw you, remember that it was only my body that was forgetful, not my heart. My prayer is that all my loved ones meet me again someday." -----

May did her best to set an example of love and forgiveness, and thus, for those of you who have had disagreements, fights, arguments, misunderstandings with your family or friends, please try to forgive one another. Please make an effort to regain the loving relationships you once had. Do it not for the ones that ask for forgiveness, but do it for yourself. Life is too short to hold on to anger or hold grudges and hard feelings that can cause you to miss out on a chance of making some wonderful memories. Life is full of love and boundless blessings if you only embrace every moment.

May's family would like say proper thank-yous to special medical personnel who helped take care of her over the years, especially these past eight months. Thank you Dr. Jeremy Klein and your office staff (Karen especially); members of Three Rivers Home Care (Nurse Barbie, you were extra wonderful); Three Rivers Physical therapy (Lyndsie, Tiffany, and Jennifer, she looked forward to your visits.); staff at Three Rivers Medical Center (Jean Moore, Alissa Moore, Kara Kirk, Amanda Skaggs, Tammy McGinnis, Tiffany Caines, Dr. Kingston, Dr. Webb); Tracy Sturgill from Horizon Home Care; staff from Community Hospice (Shirley, Jessica, Janet, and Linda) and to her two most favorite home health aides from times past, Elaine Mills and Kathy Issac. Each of these persons played a big part in May's life and care over the past few years and impacted not only her, but her family's life as well. We want to say thank you for not only being there to help May physically, but also to say thank you for being wonderful, caring, compassionate friends. May God bless each of abundantly.
