“ I am so sorry that Mick had to leave his family and friends, without even a moment to bid them a quick farewell. While no words can ease the pain of his unforeseen departure, we must remember the good times spent with him, throughout the years or even months, that he has been a part of our lives. This is what Mick would advise someone to do, if he were here. On a beautiful fall day, on Oct. 28, 1972, in Newport News, VA, he stood as a witness, of the marriage between me and Eric Eddy Marcum. He has remained a friend of our family all of these years. Eddy left all of us too early as well. My brother Billy, also gone long before he should have. Perhaps we might imagine them as Three Amigos together, again. RIP Mick. Prayers for the family.

It is hard to believe. I just talked with him Wednesday evening at school when he came to get Jayden. We laughed because a mom was giving me a lesson on how to delete things on an ipad. He agreed that we take all the help we can get when it comes to technology. God bless the family. Herman and Mary Stacy
