CHARLES RICKY BUTHER - June 10, 2018 at 11:23 AM

As you and I grew up together sharing our ups and downs. We never forgot how to laugh and praised our heavenly Father for our life, our longevity, health and love as sisters, even though we had many. Marie, I thank God for you and to have you in my life. There is no shortcuts through grief, only a path, along which our LORD himself has walked and will walk with us with His gentle strength. Jesus hear my prayer for strength to get through this valley of loss of my sister Marie. I realize that You care and have given Your all for me. And yet I still struggle to understand why you've allowed this great sorrow in my life. Surely you will come along side me today and touch my heart and start to heal. Marie, we will be together again this I know. Love you my, Hero,
