

Monica B. Horn

November 25, 1917 - September 11, 2014

Monica Buskirk Horn passed away peacefully on Thursday, September 11, 2014. She was 96 years old. She was blessed with a long life. She was born in Floyd County, Kentucky on November 25, 1917 to the late Nathaniel Simpkins (Tucker) and Trixie Cline Buskirk. In addition to her parents she is preceded in death by her husband, Author Horn, one daughter, Rena B. Smith and one son, Homer Cline Horn.

Monica is survived by her children, Brooksie Horn of Louisa, Kentucky, James Author Horn of Inez, Kentucky and Eunice (Cline) Horn Robinson of Lexington, Kentucky; 12 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great grandchildren. She is also survived by 4 siblings, Robert (Bob) Buskirk of Louisa, Kentucky, Unafaye Chaney of Ironton, Ohio, Phyllis Dean of Mansfield, Ohio and Ruth Zemla of North Carolina.

Her greatest blessings was the love that sustained her, love for god and the church. Love for her many friends who were like family too and welcomed with open arms for all the gatherings and reunions at home. Love for her community which she served in many roles; teacher, social worker, citizen active in politics, operator of several business and offering food to flowers. A driving force for the Martin County Nursing Home, always willing to serve and help how ever she could to improve life for others.

She will be loved, missed and remembered by all who received her warm attention. Especially her children.

A special thanks to her wonderful friends, Brenda Roberts, Jessie Burgess,

Venita Hinkle and Betty Cain.

“ She was my teacher back in the 1950's, in a little red one room school house upon Rockhouse. I remember she would come to our house for lunch and have coffee with my grandparents (Bill and Flora Litton). She was a very good teacher. I always liked her, and I will never forget her.
