“ I grew up in Kermit and I remember Mrs. Rouse as one of the sweetest ladies in our little hometown. She always spoke to me in such a kind voice. Not only was she kind, she was also one of the most beautiful women in town. I am sure her family will miss her dearly and all those that remember her as well.

Love and prayers,

“ A wonderful christian lady whom I had great pleasure in knowing! I enjoyed talking with Nannie and checking on her daily when Tom and Annette were away. Heaven has gained an angel and my life has been enriched by knowing her. Until we meet again!
