Nettie Gaye Newsome, 72, of Kermit, West Virginia, went home to heaven on Wednesday, September 14, 2022, at Cabell Huntington Hospital in Huntington, WV, after a lingering illness. Nettie was born on July 12, 1950, in Mingo County, WV, one of eight daughters, to the late Floyd and Louise (Rose) Newsome. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by four sisters: Violet Brewer, Delphia Fraker, Irene Pauley, and Joan Maynard; and a very special brother-in-law, Lloyd Brewer.

Nettie is survived by three sisters: Jewell Sammons, of Kermit, WV; Garnet (Larry) Rigsby, of China Grove, North Carolina; and her twin sister, Ellen Faye (Carlos) Fletcher, of Inez, Kentucky, and a host of nieces and nephews.

The family would like to extend a very special thank you to her caregivers she loved very much, Tasha Williams and Joyce Sturgell, whose care and attention allowed Nettie to stay in her own home.

Nettie was a born-again Christian and was of the Church of God faith. Nettie was a 1970 graduate of Kermit High School in Kermit, WV. She was crowned Homecoming Queen during her time at Kermit High. She was a homemaker who enjoyed preparing meals and baking for her family. She was considered a caregiver in the family, always willing to help in times of need. She was someone you could always depend on. She enjoyed watching her TV shows and going shopping with her sisters. She found pleasure in the simple things in life. She was a beloved sister and adored by her nieces and nephews, who lovingly referred to her as "Aunt Gaye-Gaye." She leaves behind many beautiful memories that will remain in our hearts and minds forever.
