“ Hunu was a special lady to all that knew her. My husband Rick loved her like a mom and is filled with sorrow as I know all of her family is. I can honestly say that Hunu gave me such a feeling of belonging to the Fitzpatrick family when Rick and I got married. She always gave me that pat on the back and sage advice during the tough times of being a second wife. I am so sorry for the loss to her loved ones and I myself will definitely miss her quick smile, sassy comments and welcoming kindness she always showed to me. Hunu your rest has come.

“ I remember Hunu driving me to and from headstart. I vividly remember about 5 kids in the car, no seatbelts. Windows down and her smoking. My how times have changed. She had the kindest heart of anyone I think I've ever known. I have loved her ever since. I remember going home and telling mom how nice this lady was. She was a great part of my childhood and I wouldn't trade my memories for anything. Love you Hunu, rest in peace.
