“ I cannot express how sad I am. I was blessed with being able to spend some time with Trish when we came home to visit. I gave her the name of Patricia and pretended she was my baby, when I was so young. I loved her so much. I think I can speak for all of us that we were very blessed to have had the time with her and to know that God needed another angel. Thank you Aunt Eudie for sharing Trish when she was a baby and for letting me think I was a big girl. I love you and the rest of you very much. My prayers go out to you. R I P my sweet Patricia.
