“ Remembering quite a few great memories of this beautiful friend that I met back in high school. My heart was very sad last night to learn of her departure of this world as we know it. Keeping her family, friends & all her loved her in my prayers. Since yesterday, I’m recalling our last in person conversation that took place not long before Dallas had left my side. She had shared with me her heart condition & how she was coping with it. Basically, we caught up with how life was treating us, with challenges we are faced with daily. The victory to overcome is faith, family with love and support. That says enough right there of who she was as a person. Rest In Peace sweet lady & may our Good Lord above comfort us with peace in knowing, “We have a better place to live for eternity, if we know Our Lord Jesus Christ as our personal Savior!” ❤️ 🙏 ☀️

Patty was a sweet lady. She was my sister's daughter in law.(Mary Allen Dalton) I remember seeing her when I came home. She loved her children so much. They were always first on her list. I will miss her. She suffered greatly Rest in peace Patty. Love and prayers to her family.
